

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO FOR 3:17-cv-02224

3. It appears from the allegations of the complaint that the plaintiff has a cause of action for which relief can be granted.

4. I was informed that the Defendant's last known residential address is: L-2 CALLE 8 URB BRISAS DEL MAR, LUQUILLO, PR 00773

5. On the below dates, I visited the property located at the previously mentioned address, with the purpose of serving summons and the property appeared:

- On January 20, 2018 at 11:15 a.m., there was no one at the property and there were no neighbors around to talk to.

- On January 26, 2018 at 7:00 p.m., there was no one at the property and there were no neighbors around to talk to. There was a car inside the driveway but I could not see the model or the license plate.

- On January 31, 2018 at 7:00 a.m., there was no one at the property and there were no neighbors around to talk to. There were two cars inside the garage. The property does not look abandoned. I spoke to the neighbor, CARMEN SANTOS, who stated that the Defendant resides in the property but on December, she went to the States but does not know where or when she will be back. She thinks that the Defendant left because there was electricity in the community after the hurricane. She has no other information on the Defendant or the Defendant's relatives.

- On February 17, 2018 at 8:12 pm, there was no one at the property and there were no neighbors around to talk to. There was no movement. The cars were still in the same position. Nothing has changed.

6. Pursuant to the information provided I, searched on social networks in order to locate any information on Defendant.

No Results were found

7. On February 5, 2018 at 3:27 pm, I was informed by my internal skip department that they located two possible addresses for the Defendant in the States. A separate Sworn Statement will be provided for the addresses in the States.

8. On February 1, 2018 at 9:20 am, I arrived at the police headquarters of LUQUILLO and there, I interviewed Agent GOMEZ, Badge No. 33223, who informed me that she could not provide any information.

9. On February 1, 2018 at 9:00 a.m., I called the town hall of LUQUILLO and spoke to ANA FIGUEROA in Human Resources, who informed me that the Defendant was unknown.

10. On February 1, 2018 at 9:35 am, I visited the United States Postal office nearest to the property address and requested any information that could lead to the Defendant, and was informed that:

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO FOR 3:17-cv-02224

In order to obtain any information or forwarding address, a Forwarding Address Request Form needed to be submitted and it will take 20-30 days to receive any feedback from the post office. I submitted a form to request a forwarding address for the Defendant.

11. On February 3, 2018 at 9:20 a.m., I performed a person search using INTELIUS, which provided no information that could lead to the Defendant.

12. I was unable to serve the summons of process upon the Defendant, as I have been unable to locate the Defendant despite multiple efforts undertaken by me to do so.

I subscribe the present affidavit for all legal purposes, including but not limited to its use by public or private agencies or entities as it may be deemed appropriate.

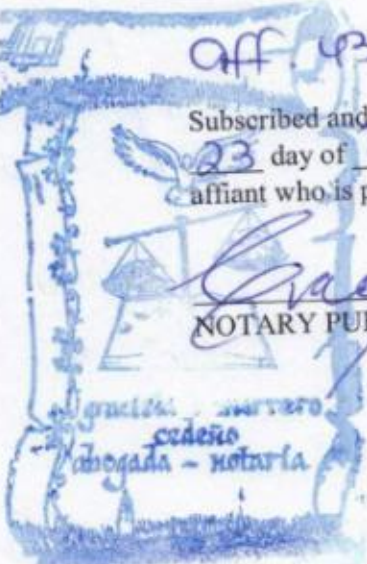

I declare that I am of legal capacity according to Civil Procedures of Puerto Rico Rule 4.3, I certify that I executed service of Summons and Complaint in the above manner.

aff. 43,515

Subscribed and Sworn to before me on the 23 day of Feb., 2018 by the affiant who is personally known to me.
